Remarks:

The Speaker Smt. Oindrila Sen, an Assistant Professor of History in Jhargram Raj College, described perfectly the inner essence of domestic violence. Many students of this college came from socio-economically backward class. Many of them are first generation learner. Being reared up in a patriarchal society, many of them are victim of domestic abuse. The speaker informed the type of abuses and the measure against them. The question answer session was very warm and it became a true dialogue between students and the speaker.
