FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL/OFFICER-IN-CHARGE

Dr. Debnarayan Roy
Principal/Officer-in-Charge

Jhargram Raj College is situated at the town of Jhargram, the District Head Quarters of the newly created District of Jhargram. Founded in 1949 as Jhargram Agricultural College, Jhargram Raj College grew into a hallowed centre of higher learning, offering to the undergraduate students a whole array of subjects from three disciplines of Arts, Commerce and Science. Initially affiliated to the University of Calcutta, the college came under affiliation of Vidyasagar University in 1985. In 2005, the college introduced its first Postgraduate course in Chemistry. Gradually, Postgraduate courses in Zoology and Bengali also came into being from 2006 and 2008, respectively. The faculties regularly participate in seminars, workshops etc. and their research papers are regularly published in reputed journals and periodicals. Different minor and major research projects funded by different government agencies are carried out by the faculty members of various departments of the college. In its seventy-one years of existence, the college has continuously strived to cope with the changes with time and offer better education to its students. The mission of the college has been the empowerment of the under-privileged. Many of the alumni of the college are at the top positions of various government and non-government organisations. Many are reputed academicians. Many have made names in the field of art, music, literature etc. While the college takes pride in them, it busies itself with the duty of grooming the present students and looks forward to a brighter future for the coming generations. The college welcomes the young aspirants to help them realise their dreams and thereby contribute to our beautiful nation.

HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE

JRC Science Building

Jhargram Raj College is situated at the town of Jhargram, the District Head Quarters of the newly created District of Jhargram. The area is a place of natural beauty and diverse tribal culture. The college is set amid the serene and verdant forests of primordial trees such as Mahua, Sal, Piasal etc. It has registered a spectacular growth over the years since its inception. In 1949, the young Raja of Jhargram, Raja Sir Narasingha Malla Ugal Sanda Deb, OBE, KBE, at the request of Pramathanath Banerjee, the then Vice Chancellor of Calcutta University, made a bequest of Rupees One Lakh in cash and vast tracts of land to set up a college at Jhargram. The Khaira Professor of Agriculture of the University of Calcutta Dr Pabitra

Kumar Sen who was the first principal of the college, helped with the Khaira Endowment Fund. The college was handed over to the Government of West Bengal in 1953. Initially affiliated to the University of Calcutta, the college came under affiliation of Vidyasagar University in 1985. On 8th May, 1999, the college celebrated the completion of 50 years of its glorious existence.

In 2005, the college introduced its first Postgraduate course in Chemistry. Gradually, Postgraduate courses in Zoology and Bengali also came into being from 2006 and 2008, respectively. Jhargram Raj College, over time, grew into a hallowed centre of higher learning, offering to the undergraduate students a whole array of subjects from three disciplines of Arts, Commerce and Science. Different minor and major research projects funded by different government agencies are carried out by the faculty members of various departments of the college. The faculties regularly participate in seminars, workshops etc. and their research papers are regularly published in reputed journals and periodicals. These activities lead to involve and motivate the students, especially those who are pursuing postgraduate courses in this college, to a research career. In its seventy-one years of existence, the college has witnessed the changes with time and it has been prepared accordingly to cope with the changes and offer better education to its students. Many of the alumni of the college are at the top positions of various government and non-government organisations. Many are reputed academicians. Many have made names in the field of art, music, literature etc. While the college takes pride in them, it busies itself with the duty of grooming the present students and looks forward to a brighter future for the coming generations.

MISSION & VISION

Jhargram Raj College being a government college offering quality education programmes at UG as well as a few PG levels takes a special place in the area. Many students of this college come from extremely poor families and under-privileged sections of the society and, are often the first-generation learners. Their requirements are quite different from that of the students belonging to middle class and comparatively well-to-do families. To achieve what is required of it, Jhargram Raj College functions accordingly to impart good and quality education in particular and contribute towards social welfare in general.

The college consistently works towards:

- Spreading education and awareness.
- Making youths socially responsible and able to undertake the social responsibilities that are demanded of a good citizen.
- Grooming students as sensitive men and women.
- Providing a process of learning via activities that cross-links the society with education.
- Imparting values that lead to accountability for the society at large.
- Inculcating a sense of understanding for self as well as for others.

PROFILE OF THE COLLEGE

LOCATION: Jhargram Raj College is situated at the town of Jhargram, the District Head Quarters of Jhargram It takes about ten minutes from Jhargram Rail Station of Howrah-Mumbai railway line under South Eastern railway. ### NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (NSS Units – I, II, III & IV, Jhargram Raj College)

Swachh Bharat - Cleanliness Drive

The National Service Scheme is a central government scheme, under the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports. It was launched on the 24th of September, 1969, with the aim of involving students in the task of national service. Keeping its motto of 'Not Me, But You' as its goal, the National Service Scheme of Jhargram Raj College has had a long tradition of volunteer activity by the students of the college. Today, there are four units of NSS operating under the guidance of the National Service Scheme Cell, Vidyasagar University, and the NSS Regional Directorate, Kolkata. Led by energetic Programme Officers, the NSS Units of Jhargram Raj College induct volunteers in their very first year of college, and they remain enrolled as volunteers till their final year of college. They are encouraged to take part in the calendar programmes conducted by the NSS Units, in the extension and outreach programmes conducted in the adopted villages, and also in special programmes held from time to time, such as week-long special

Blood Donation and Thalassemia Detection

Special camps. The volunteers actively participate in tree plantation and blood donation programmes, cleanliness drive, health awareness campaigns, special camps, social work at adopted villages etc. all around the year. The volunteers of these units are active participants in all these programmes and are well-trained to help the society at large. Jhargram Raj College is one of the most active colleges in the district with regard to the activities of the National Service Scheme, and during the crisis of Covid-19 in the year 2020, Jhargram Raj College has been nominated to be the nodal office in the District of Jhargram, to lead the crusade against Covid-19.

DISCIPLINE

- Loitering and lounging on the corridor are prohibited.
- Admission to the college binds a student to abide by the College rules and all the directives that may be issued from time to time by the college authorities.
- Students absent from class lectures for more than three consecutive days have to produce a letter by parent or guardian (whose signature appears on application form during admission) explaining the cause of absence.
- A formal letter accompanied by a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner is necessary in case of sickness for over a week. All leave applications addressed to the Principal / Officer-in-Charge (forwarded through respective Heads of the Departments in case of Honours students) should be deposited at the students' section of the College.
- Students' attendance is regularly monitored by the College and displayed on occasions in the notice board for necessary remedial measures by the students concerned.
- The name of a student who has been absent for 15 consecutive working days of the College in any subject will be struck off from the register without intimation.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- A student is advised to go through the notice board regularly.
- Students are required to address their teachers and all other members of the teaching and non-teaching staff with due respect and politeness and are expected to behave properly.
- Any kind of disobedience or objectionable behaviour may result in penal action leading even to expulsion from the college.
- Strict action may be taken if college property including library books is wilfully damaged or destroyed.
- Students should not enter the Principal's chamber without permission. However they can meet the college officials at 1.30 pm and onwards from Monday to Friday.
- Routine needs of the students are met usually by the staff in the students section of the office.
- Application to be forwarded by the Principal / Officer-in Charge must be submitted in duplicate to the College.
- Applications to be forwarded within a certain date must be submitted at least three clear working days ahead of that date.
- Prayer for character-certificate or any other document by any current or ex-student is also to be made at least three clear working days ahead of the date by which it is required. Such application should clearly state the name, academic session, year, subject and roll no. of the candidate.
- All such applications should be submitted to the College office, and in urgent case, to the Principal / Officer-in Charge or the Heads of the Departments concerned directly.
- Any change in address/ telephone number/ guardian-status should be immediately brought to the notice of the College office for necessary change in the records.
- No one, other than parents / guardian whose signature appears in the application form during admission is allowed to sign in any other document or represent them on their behalf in any case.
